CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER RESIGNS
AT SENECA GAMING CORPORATION
*Patrick Fox joined company in 2005

NIAGARA FALLS, NEW YORK – Seneca Gaming Corporation announced today that Patrick M. Fox, the company's Chief Financial Officer, has resigned effective Friday, April 11, 2008.

Fox, who joined the company in 2005, cited his desire to be closer to his family as the reason for his decisions. His current contract with Seneca Gaming Corporation was set to expire in June.

"Having been able to spend a week at home in Chicago with my wife and daughters recently brought me the realization that I had been away for long enough," Fox said. "With my contract coming up for renewal in June, I thought this was the most fair and appropriate time to inform the company and the Seneca Nation that it was the right time for me to move on. My experience with Seneca Gaming Corporation has been nothing but extraordinary and I know they will continue to achieve great things."

Fox joined Seneca Gaming Corporation as Vice President of Finance in 2005 and was named Chief Financial Officer in June 2006. A Certified Public Accountant, Fox previously held the position of Chief Financial Officer with Prairie Meadows Racetrack & Casino in Des Moines, Iowa as well as Trump Indiana. He has more than 30 years of financial and accounting experience.
